October Right of the Month: Medicare and Medicaid/Grievances

Resident in facilities that participate in the Medicare and/or Medicaid programs are entitled to assistance in applying for and using benefits under those programs. You have the right to speak up about grievances and have them responded to promptly and fairly. All residents have the right to voice concerns/complaints spoken or written, information on how to file a grievance, a timely response by the facility and to be free from any pressure intended to discourage you from voicing concerns/complaints.

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

The leaves will be changing soon. Temperatures will begin cooling down. That's just the way it is. We don't mind change as long as we know it is coming. It is the sudden change that is hard. It is the change that makes our routine change that we don't like. I am thankful for our God that never changes. Hebrews 13:8 says: "Jesus is the same yesterday, today and forever."

Activities in July

Some of our residents and staff attended the Senior Residents' Convention in Jackson. They enjoyed the day full of bingo, dancing and arts & crafts!

Residents were entertained by Uncle Pug's Band and enjoyed fresh boiled peanuts cooked by our DONA Jaqueline Coward's Husband David Coward.
