Thank you for your trust and understanding during these very trying times.

July Right of the Month: Charges for Extra Services

You have the right to know about and approve any extra cost items. As part of your resident rights, you may be charge only for items or services Medicare of Medicaid does not cover if you specifically request them and you may not be required to request extra items as a condition of admission or continued stay.

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

July is typically a time to celebrate our nation's birth and history. With our nation in the midst of a pandemic and social turmoil, there might not seem like much to celebrate.

But I am thankful we have a God Who is over all things and is concerned about all things. Make we fix our hearts on things above and trust our Lord to take care of these things below.
